LIBRARY DIRECTOR: Erica Richardson

Following is information for citizens who may consider filing for public office. It is a guide to help potential Trustees understand government policies, procedures, and anticipated involvement.

Please recognize that laws governing cities are constantly changing. Candidates may desire to ensure that this material is still current and applicable.

TRUSTEE CANDIDATE INFORMATION

Holding a position of elected office can be a very rewarding and productive experience for those interested in serving their fellow citizens. It can also be a very demanding and time-consuming task. If you are considering running for a position on the Benbrook Library Board of Trustees, the following information may be helpful.

Benbrook Library District operates as a special purpose district and is governed by Local Government Code Chapter 326. The voters elect a Board of Trustees, which in turn, hires a Library Director to administer the library's day-to-day affairs.

The Board of Trustees serves as the legislative body. The Board sets policy approves the budget and sets the tax rate. The Board is the final authority on policy decisions that determine the functions of the Library. The Library Director is responsible for directing the workforce and programs of the Library in accordance with ordinances, policies, and procedures adopted by the Board of Trustees and state and federal laws, where applicable.

From the time an applicant files for a place on the Board of Trustees, certain requirements must be met to comply with law. Many of these requirements, such as dates reports are due, are provided at the time of filing.

ELECTION DAY INFORMATION

General Elections are held on the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November of each year. Polls are open from 7:00 AM to 7:00 PM on Election Day. Benbrook Library District enters into a Joint Election Contract with Tarrant County and other local political entities for election services.

After each polling place judge completes the necessary paperwork, the results of that precinct are taken to Tarrant County for tabulation. As each polling place reports, those results are posted on the Tarrant County Election website. These results are unofficial until such time the Tarrant County Elections Administrator provides the final results to the Library Director. The final results will include Early Voting, Election Day Voting, Mail ballots and the outcome of any provisional ballots.

The Library Director compiles the results of voting for each candidate or measure in each polling place based on information provided on Election night. These results are the unofficial canvass of votes. This information is placed on the Library's website.

The official canvass of election returns cannot be made earlier than the eighth day, or later than the eleventh day, after the election. During that time frame, the Board of Trustees will meet in regular or special session to canvass the returns.

In the event a runoff election is required, it will be scheduled at this meeting. The same procedures on election night and final canvass will be followed as the regular election.

AFTER THE ELECTION

A Statement of Officer must be filed with the Library Director before the Oath of Office may be administered.

A newly elected Trustee will be furnished information such as the Library's budget, policies, meeting archives, and other information for review and study prior to being seated as a member of the Board of Trustees.

If further information is needed after reviewing these documents, please contact the Library Director. Members of Board of Trustees work directly with the Library Director. Any information should come from those offices, unless otherwise directed by the Library Director. A member of Board of Trustees should not request or direct staff to furnish information without first contacting the Library Director.

Library staff is available to assist newly elected Trustees become familiar with the Board of Trustees arrangements and use of library equipment. Meetings are conducted by the Board President using Roberts Rule of Order and voting is done by hand count and recorded in the minutes. Regularly scheduled Board of Trustees meetings are held on the third Monday of each month, at 6:30 PM in the Meeting Room at the Benbrook Public Library.

The Board agenda is prepared by the Library Director. The Board President or a member of Board of Trustees may request placement of an item on the agenda by submitting a written request to the Library Director no later than noon of the Thursday before the next regularly scheduled Library Board meeting. The request should clearly state the nature of the item, the desired action by Board of Trustees and include any supporting material. Board of Trustee agenda packets are prepared by staff and placed on the Library's website. You will receive additional information regarding the method to obtain agenda information under a separate letter.

Packets should be reviewed prior to the Board of Trustees meeting. Questions regarding agenda items should be directed to the Library Director.

At the first Board of Trustees meeting at which all candidates have been seated, an election of officers is conducted. Each member of the Board of Trustees may vote.

Following is a brief summary of important legal issues affecting Trustees such as open meetings and records regulations and conflict of interest statutes.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEETINGS

The Local Government Code Chapter 326 and the Benbrook Library District bylaws require that: (1) the Board of Trustees meet at least once each month; (2) meetings be scheduled at a fixed time and place; (3) a quorum of Trustees must be present; (4) majority vote of those present and voting decides the question; and (5) the Board President always presides if present.

TEXAS OPEN MEETINGS ACT

The Texas Open Meetings Act requires written notice of the date, hour, place and subject of each meeting held by the governing body. The notice of the meeting must be posted in a place readily accessible to the general public at all times for at least 72 hours before the scheduled time of the meeting. An exception to this requirement is in case of an emergency or when there is an urgent public necessity. The notice of the emergency meeting or the supplemental notice of the emergency subject added as an item to the properly posted agenda must be posted at least one hour before the meeting is scheduled to begin.

All meetings must be open to the public, except an Executive Session. Closed Executive Sessions are permitted for: (1) private consultation between a governing body and its attorney relative to pending or contemplated litigation or a settlement offer; (2) deliberation regarding the purchase, exchange, lease or value of real property; (3) deliberation regarding a prospective gift; (4) deliberation regarding the appointment, employment, evaluation, reassignment, duties, discipline, or dismissal of a public officer or employee or to hear a complaint or charge against an officer or employee; (5) the deployment or the specific occasions for implementation of security personnel or devices; and (6) deliberations regarding economic development negotiations. No final action, vote or straw vote on a matter considered in a closed meeting can be taken except in open sessions.

TEXAS PUBLIC INFORMATION ACT

The Texas Public Information Act (PIA) requires that most Library records, including those in the possession of Trustees, be open to public inspection. Most written material used or produced by Trustees is required to be made available, upon request to the news media and other members of the public unless specifically excluded from PIA requirements. That material also includes text messages on private cell phones which concern library business.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Every elected and appointed official of the Benbrook Library District must be aware of the strict prohibition against conflicts of interest. Failing to comply with the law risks criminal penalties for the individual Trustee and invalidation of the action of the governing body. Local Government Code Chapter 171 and Government Code Section 573 detail the provisions of the conflict of interest statutes. Copies of this portion of the law may be obtained from the Library Director.

LIABILITY

General speaking, Texas Courts have held that discretionary decisions made by Trustees within their legislative authority and in "good faith"- that is without intent to do harm, are not personally liable under the Texas Tort Claims Act of 1983.

However, certain specific statutes are exceptions to the Tort Claims Act. You should contact an attorney for more detailed information relative to any personal liability incurred as a legislative member of the Board and have a basic understanding of the legal principles involved.

Self-education is an important part of every new Trustee's training. The Benbrook Library District is a member of the North Central Texas Council of Governments (NCTOG) and Texas Municipal League (TML). These organizations provide information that can be helpful to a newly elected official. In addition, Texas Municipal League conducts a training session for newly elected Trustees.

INSTRUCTIONS

The Declaration of Write-In Candidacy is filed with the City Secretary, Secretary of Board of Trustees, Secretary of Board of Directors or other designated officer that represents the political subdivision.

The declaration must be received by the filing officer not later than 5:00 p.m. of the fifth day after the date an application for a place on the ballot is required to be filed. For an election to be held on a uniform election date, the day of the filing deadline is the 74th day before Election Day. Texas Election Code, Sections 144.006, 146.054.

The application must be received by the filing deadline. A postmark is not sufficient. The declaration may not be filed earlier than 30 days before the deadline for filing the application. A declaration filed before that day is void.

If you have questions about the application, please contact the Secretary of State's Elections Division at 800-252-8683.

NEPOTISM LAW

The candidate must sign this statement indicating his awareness of the nepotism law. When a candidate signs the application, it is an acknowledgment that the candidate is aware of the nepotism law. The nepotism prohibitions of chapter 573, Government Code, are summarized below:

No officer may appoint, or vote for or confirm the appointment or employment of any person related within the second degree by affinity (marriage) or the third degree by consanguinity (blood) to the officer, or to any other member of the governing body or court on which the officer serves when the compensation of that person is to be paid out of public funds or fees of office. However, nothing in the law prevents the appointment, voting for, or confirmation of anyone who has been continuously employed in the office or employment for the following period prior to the election or appointment of the officer or member related to the employee in the prohibited degree: six months, if the officer or member is elected at an election other than the general election for state and county officers.

No candidate may take action to influence an employee of the office to which the candidate is seeking election or an employee or officer of the governmental body to which the candidate is seeking election regarding the appointment or employment of a person related to the candidate in a prohibited degree as noted above. This prohibition does not apply to a candidate's actions with respect to a bona fide class or category of employees or prospective employees.

Sin embargo, nada en la ley impide el nombramiento, la votación o la confirmación de cualquier persona que haya estado empleada continuamente en la oficina o el empleo durante el período siguiente antes de la elección o el nombramiento del funcionario o miembro emparentado con el empleado en el grado prohibido: seis meses, si el funcionario o miembro es elegido en una elección que no sea la elección general para funcionarios estatales y del condado.

Ningún candidato puede tomar medidas para influir en un empleado del cargo al que aspira a ser elegido o en un empleado o funcionario del organismo gubernamental al que aspira a ser elegido en relación con el nombramiento o el empleo de una persona emparentada con el candidato en un grado prohibido, tal como se ha indicado anteriormente. ## APPOINTMENT OF A CAMPAIGN TREASURER BY A CANDIDATE

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

These instructions are for the APPOINTMENT OF A CAMPAIGN TREASURER BY A CANDIDATE (Form CTA). Use Form CTA only for appointing your campaign treasurer. Use the AMENDMENT (Form ACTA) for changing information previously reported on Form CTA and for renewing your choice to report under the modified schedule. Note: Candidates for most judicial offices use Form JCTA to file a campaign treasurer appointment.

DUTIES OF A CANDIDATE OR OFFICEHOLDER

As a candidate or officeholder, you alone, not the campaign treasurer, are responsible for filing this form and all candidate/officeholder reports of contributions, expenditures, and loans. Failing to file a report on time or filing an incomplete report may subject you to criminal or civil penalties.

QUALIFICATIONS OF CAMPAIGN TREASURER

A person is ineligible for appointment as a campaign treasurer if the person is the campaign treasurer of a political committee that has outstanding filing obligations (including outstanding penalties). This prohibition does not apply if the committee in connection with which the ineligibility arose has not accepted more than $5,000 in political contributions or made more than $5,000 in political expenditures in any semiannual reporting period. A person who violates this prohibition is liable for a civil penalty not to exceed three times the amount of political contributions accepted or political expenditures made in violation of this provision. Note: A candidate may appoint himself or herself as his or her own campaign treasurer.

DUTIES OF A CAMPAIGN TREASURER

State law does not impose any obligations on a candidate's campaign treasurer.

REQUIREMENT TO FILE BEFORE BEGINNING A CAMPAIGN

If you plan to run for a public office in Texas (except for a federal office), you must file this form when you become a candidate even if you do not intend to accept campaign contributions or make campaign expenditures. A "candidate" is a person who knowingly and willingly takes affirmative action for the purpose of gaining nomination or election to public office or for the purpose of satisfying financial obligations incurred by the person in connection with the campaign for nomination or election. Examples of affirmative action include:

- (A) the filing of a campaign treasurer appointment, except that the filing does not constitute candidacy or an announcement of candidacy for purposes of the automatic resignation provisions of Article XVI, Section 65, or Article XI, Section 11, of the Texas Constitution;
- (B) the filing of an application for a place on the ballot;

- (C) the filing of an application for nomination by convention;
- (D) the filing of a declaration of intent to become an independent candidate or a declaration of write-in candidacy;
- (E) the making of a public announcement of a definite intent to run for public office in a particular election, regardless of whether the specific office is mentioned in the announcement;
- (F) before a public announcement of intent, the making of a statement of definite intent to run for public office and the soliciting of support by letter or other mode of communication;
- (G) the soliciting or accepting of a campaign contribution or the making of a campaign expenditure; and
- (H) the seeking of the nomination of an executive committee of a political party to fill a vacancy.

Additionally, the law provides that you must file this form before you may accept a campaign contribution or make or authorize a campaign expenditure, including an expenditure from your personal funds. A filing fee paid to a filing authority to qualify for a place on a ballot is a campaign expenditure that may not be made before filing a campaign treasurer appointment form with the proper filing authority.

If you are an officeholder, you may make officeholder expenditures and accept officeholder contributions without having a campaign treasurer appointment on file. If you do not have a campaign treasurer appointment on file and you wish to accept campaign contributions or make campaign expenditures in connection with your office or for a different office, you must file this form before doing so. In such a case, a sworn report of contributions, expenditures, and loans will be due no later than the 15th day after filing this form.

WHERE TO FILE A CAMPAIGN TREASURER APPOINTMENT

The appropriate filing authority depends on the office sought or held.

a. Texas Ethics Commission. The Texas Ethics Commission (Commission) is the appropriate filing authority for the Secretary of State and for candidates for or holders of the following offices:

- Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Comptroller, Treasurer, Land Commissioner, Agriculture Commissioner, Railroad Commissioner.
- State Senator or State Representative.
- Supreme Court Justice, Court of Criminal Appeals Judge, and Court of Appeals Judge.*
- State Board of Education.

- A multi-county district judge* or multi-county district attorney.
- A single-county district judge.*
- An office of a political subdivision other than a county if the political subdivision includes areas in more than one county and if the governing body of the political subdivision has not been formed.
- A chair of the state executive committee of a political party with a nominee on the ballot in the most recent gubernatorial election.
- A county chair of a political party with a nominee on the ballot in the most recent gubernatorial election if the county has a population of 350,000 or more.

* Judicial candidates use FORM JCTA to appoint a campaign treasurer.

b. County Clerk. The county clerk (or the county elections administrator or tax assessor, as applicable) is the appropriate local filing authority for a candidate for:

- A county office.
- A precinct office.
- A district office (except for multi-county district offices).
- An office of a political subdivision other than a county if the political subdivision is within the boundaries of a single county and if the governing body of the political subdivision has not been formed.

c. Local Filing Authority. If a candidate is seeking an office of a political subdivision other than a county, the appropriate filing authority is the clerk or secretary of the governing body of the political subdivision. If the political subdivision has no clerk or secretary, the appropriate filing authority is the governing body's presiding officer. Basically, any political subdivision that is authorized by the laws of this state to hold an election is considered a local filing authority. Examples are cities, school districts, and municipal utility districts.

FILING WITH A DIFFERENT AUTHORITY

If you have a campaign treasurer appointment on file with one authority, and you wish to accept campaign contributions or make or authorize campaign expenditures in connection with another office that would require filing with a different authority, you must file a new campaign treasurer appointment and a copy of your old campaign treasurer appointment (certified by the old authority) with the new filing authority before beginning your campaign. You should also provide written notice to the original filing authority that your future reports will be filed with another authority; use Form CTA-T for this purpose.

FORMING A POLITICAL COMMITTEE

As a candidate, you must file an APPOINTMENT OF A CAMPAIGN TREASURER BY A CANDIDATE (FORM CTA). You may also form a specific-purpose committee to support your candidacy. Remember that filing a campaign treasurer appointment for a political committee does not eliminate the requirement that a candidate file his or her own campaign treasurer appointment (FORM CTA) and the related reports.

NOTE: See the Campaign Finance Guide for Political Committees for further information about specific-purpose committees.

CHANGING A CAMPAIGN TREASURER

If you wish to change your campaign treasurer, simply file an amended campaign treasurer appointment (FORM ACTA). This will automatically terminate the outgoing campaign treasurer appointment.

AMENDING A CAMPAIGN TREASURER APPOINTMENT

If any of the information reported on the campaign treasurer appointment (FORM CTA) changes, file an AMENDMENT: APPOINTMENT OF A CAMPAIGN TREASURER BY A CANDIDATE (FORM ACTA) to report the change.

REPORTING REQUIREMENT FOR CERTAIN OFFICEHOLDERS

If you are an officeholder who appoints a campaign treasurer after a period of not having one, you must file a report of contributions, expenditures, and loans no later than the 15th day after your appointment is effective. This requirement is not applicable if you are a candidate or an officeholder who is merely changing campaign treasurers.

TERMINATING A CAMPAIGN TREASURER APPOINTMENT

You may terminate your campaign treasurer appointment at any time by:

- 1) filing a campaign treasurer appointment for a successor campaign treasurer, or
- 2) filing a final report.

Remember that you may not accept any campaign contributions or make or authorize any campaign expenditures without a campaign treasurer appointment on file. You may, however, accept officeholder contributions and make or authorize officeholder expenditures.

If your campaign treasurer quits, he or she must give written notice to both you and your filing authority. The termination will be effective on the date you receive the notice or on the date your filing authority receives the notice, whichever is later.

FILING A FINAL REPORT

For filing purposes, you are a “candidate” as long as you have an appointment of campaign treasurer on file. If you do not expect to accept any further campaign contributions or to make any further campaign expenditures, you may file a final report of contributions and expenditures. A final report terminates your appointment of campaign treasurer and relieves you of the obligation of filing further reports as a candidate. If you have surplus funds, or if you retain assets purchased with political funds, you will be required to file annual reports. (See instructions for FORM C/OH - UC.) If you are an officeholder at the time of filing a final report, you may be required to file semiannual reports of contributions, expenditures, and loans as an officeholder.

If you do not have an appointment of campaign treasurer on file, you may not accept campaign contributions or make campaign expenditures. A payment on a campaign debt is a campaign expenditure. An officeholder who does not have an appointment of campaign treasurer on file may accept officeholder contributions and make officeholder expenditures.

To file a final report, you must complete the CANDIDATE/OFFICEHOLDER CAMPAIGN FINANCE REPORT (FORM C/OH), check the “final” box on Page 1, Section 9, and complete and attach the DESIGNATION OF FINAL REPORT (FORM C/OH-FR).

ELECTRONIC FILING

All persons filing campaign finance reports with the Commission are required to file those reports electronically unless the person is entitled to claim an exemption. Please check the Commission’s website at <http://www.ethics.state.tx.us> for information about exemptions from the electronic filing requirements.

GUIDES

All candidates should review the applicable Commission’s campaign finance guide. Guides are available on the Commission’s website at <http://www.ethics.state.tx.us>.

Your signature here indicates that you have read the following summary of the nepotism law; that you are aware of your responsibility to file timely reports; and that you are aware of the restrictions on contributions from corporations and labor organizations.
  - The Texas nepotism law (Government Code, chapter 573) imposes certain restrictions on both officeholders and candidates. You should consult the statute in regard to the restrictions applicable to officeholders.
  - A candidate may not take an affirmative action to influence an employee of the office to which the candidate seeks election in regard to the appointment, confirmation, employment or employment conditions of an individual who is related to the candidate within a prohibited degree.
  - A candidate for a multi-member governmental body may not take an affirmative action to influence an officer or employee of the governmental body to which the candidate seeks election in regard to the appointment, confirmation, or employment of an individual related to the candidate in a prohibited degree.
  - Two people are related within a prohibited degree if they are related within the third degree by consanguinity (blood) or the second degree by affinity (marriage). The degree of consanguinity is determined by the number of generations that separate them. If neither is descended from the other, the degree of consanguinity is determined by adding the number of generations that each is separated from a common ancestor. Examples: (1) first degree - parent to child; (2) second degree - grandparent to grandchild; or brother to sister; (3) third degree - great-grandparent to great-grandchild; or aunt to niece who is child of individual's brother or sister. A husband and wife are related in the first degree by affinity. A wife has the same degree of relationship by affinity to her husband's relatives as her husband has by consanguinity. For example, a wife is related to her husband's grandmother in the second degree by affinity.

11. CANDIDATE NAME: Enter your name as you did on Page 1.

12. MODIFIED REPORTING DECLARATION: Sign this option if you wish to report under the modified reporting schedule.

The modified reporting option is not available for candidates for the office of state chair of a political party and candidates for county chair of a political party.

To the left of your signature, enter the year of the election or election cycle to which your selection of modified reporting applies.

Your selection of modified reporting is valid for an entire election cycle. For example, if you choose modified reporting before a primary election, your selection remains in effect for any runoff and for the general election and any related runoff. You must make this selection at least 30 days before the first election to which your selection applies.

An opposed candidate in an election is eligible to report under the modified reporting schedule if he or she does not intend to accept more than $940 in political contributions or make more than $940 in political expenditures in connection with an election. The amount of a filing fee paid to qualify for a place on the ballot does not count against the $940 expenditure limit. An opposed candidate who reports under the modified schedule is not required to file pre-election reports (due 30 days and 8 days before an election) or runoff reports (due 8 days before a runoff). (Note: An unopposed candidate is not required to file pre-election reports in the first place.) The obligations to file semiannual reports, special pre-election reports, or special session reports, if applicable, are not affected by selecting the modified schedule.

The $940 maximums apply to each election within the cycle. In other words, you are limited to $940 in contributions and expenditures in connection with the primary, an additional $940 in contributions and expenditures in connection with the general election, and an additional $940 in contributions and expenditures in connection with a runoff.

EXCEEDING $940 IN CONTRIBUTIONS OR EXPENDITURES. If you exceed $940 in contributions or expenditures in connection with an election, you must file according to the regular filing schedule. In other words, you must file pre-election reports and a runoff report, if you are in a runoff.

If you exceed either of the $940 limits after the 30th day before the election, you must file a sworn report of contributions and expenditures within 48 hours after exceeding the limit. After that, you must file any pre-election reports or runoff reports that are due under the regular filing schedule.

Your selection is not valid for other elections or election cycles. Use the AMENDMENT (FORM ACTA) to renew your option to file under the modified schedule for a different election year or election cycle.

For more information, see the Commission's campaign finance guide that applies to you.
